Other Study Abroad programs

The following organizations offer many study abroad programs in a variety of countries. In order to go abroad using one of these programs, you must still complete IIT's Study Abroad application and meet the 3.0 GPA requirements. Please note that other study abroad programs may have additional requirements.

Cost: For any program you encounter using the following links; you will pay the program cost to that specific program/university. You will not pay anything to IIT. Please remember to account for living and travel expenses while abroad in addition to the program cost.
